

PATENTLY DIFFERENT THAN OTHER 'TRADEMARK' ATTORNEYS.

For more than 30 years, Steve Bergerson has been the advertising and trademark attorney for the marketing communications industry. Now he's brought together a group of attorneys from creative backgrounds - offering clients a rare combination of expertise, experience and empathy. They're not just patent attorneys moonlighting on advertising and trademark law. So give them a call. And let the patent attorneys get back to their day jobs.
