

But I Heard That's Illegal

The Problem

- An employee presents with a compliance concern. “But I heard that’s illegal.”
- You need to evaluate the concern and, if appropriate, dissuade them.
- Law and psychology merge.

SSA 1871(a)(2) is Our Friend

“No rule, requirement, or other statement of policy (other than a national coverage determination) that establishes or changes a substantive legal standard governing the scope of benefits, the payment for services, or the eligibility of individuals, entities, or organizations to furnish or receive services or benefits under this title shall take effect unless it is promulgated by the Secretary by regulation under paragraph (1).”

Manuals/Guidance Can't Limit Coverage

- “Thus, if government manuals go counter to governing statutes and regulations of the highest or higher dignity, a person ‘relies on them at his peril.’ ” Government Brief in Saint Mary’s Hospital v. Leavitt.
- “[The Manual] embodies a policy that itself is not even binding in agency adjudications.... Manual provisions concerning investigational devices also ‘do not have the force and effect of law and are not accorded that weight in the adjudicatory process.’ ” Gov’t brief in Cedars-Sinai Medical Center v. Shalala.

MEMORANDUM FOR: HEADS OF CIVIL LITIGATING COMPONENTS
UNITED STATES ATTORNEYS

CC: REGULATORY REFORM TASK FORCE

FROM: THE ASSOCIATE ATTORNEY GENERAL RJB

SUBJECT: Limiting Use of Agency Guidance Documents
In Affirmative Civil Enforcement Cases

On November 16, 2017, the Attorney General issued a memorandum ("Guidance Policy") prohibiting Department components from issuing guidance documents that effectively bind the public without undergoing the notice-and-comment rulemaking process. Under the Guidance Policy, the Department may not issue guidance documents that purport to create rights or obligations binding on persons or entities outside the Executive Branch (including state, local, and tribal governments), or to create binding standards by which the Department will determine compliance with existing statutory or regulatory requirements.

The Guidance Policy also prohibits the Department from using its guidance documents to coerce regulated parties into taking any action or refraining from taking any action beyond what is required by the terms of the applicable statute or lawful regulation. And when the Department issues a guidance document setting out voluntary standards, the Guidance Policy requires a clear statement that noncompliance will not in itself result in any enforcement action.

Role of LCDs

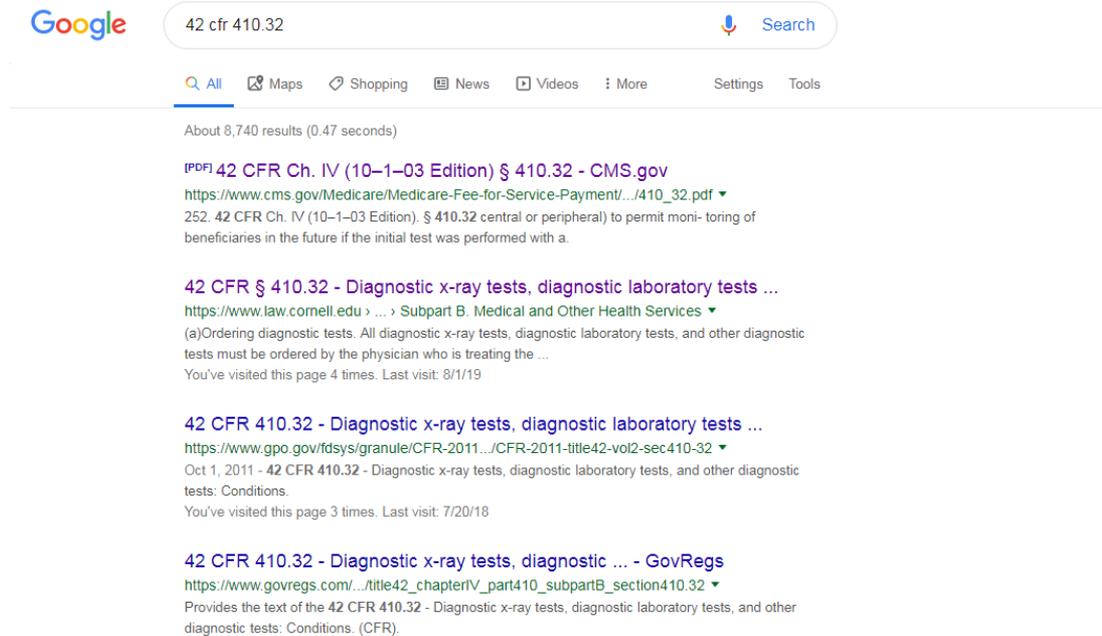

- An LCD is a coverage determination issued by a contractor, not promulgated by the agency, and is not even binding on an administrative law judge. See 42 C.F.R. 405.1062(a).
- “The district court correctly stated in its instructions to the jury that LCDs are ‘eligibility guidelines’ that are not binding and should not be considered “the exact criteria used for determining” terminal illness.”
 - United States v. Aseracare, Inc., et al., 938 F.3d 1278, 1288 (11th Circ. 2019).

(iii) Medical necessity. The entity submitting the claim may request additional diagnostic and other medical information from the ordering physician or nonphysician practitioner to document that the services it bills are reasonable and necessary. If the entity requests additional documentation, it must request material relevant to the medical necessity of the specific test(s), taking into consideration current rules and regulations on patient confidentiality.

(ii) Exceptions. CMS may automatically deny a claim without manual review if a national coverage decision or LMRP specifies the circumstances under which the service is denied, or the service is specifically excluded from Medicare coverage by law.

42 CFR 412.3 Admissions

- a. For purposes of payment under Medicare Part A, an individual is considered an inpatient of a hospital, including a critical access hospital, if formally admitted as an inpatient pursuant to an order for inpatient admission by a physician or other qualified practitioner in accordance with this section and § § 482.24(c), 482.12(c), and 485.638(a)(4)(iii) of this chapter for a critical access hospital. In addition, inpatient rehabilitation facilities also must adhere to the admission requirements specified in § 412.622.

- b. The order must be furnished by a qualified and licensed practitioner who has admitting privileges at the hospital as permitted by State law, and who is knowledgeable about the patient's hospital course, medical plan of care, and current condition. The practitioner may not delegate the decision (order) to another individual who is not authorized by the State to admit patients, or has not been granted admitting privileges applicable to that patient by the hospital's medical staff.

CMS: We Want the System to Be Fair.

“It has come to our attention that some otherwise medically necessary inpatient admissions are being denied payment due to technical discrepancies with the documentation of inpatient admission orders” such as “missing practitioner admission signatures, missing co-signatures or authentication signatures, and signatures occurring after discharge...”

CMS: We Want the System to Be Fair.

....We have concluded that if the hospital is operating in accordance with the hospital CoPs, medical reviews should primarily focus on whether the inpatient admission was medically reasonable and necessary rather than occasional inadvertent signature documentation issues unrelated to the medical necessity of the inpatient stay...

CMS: We Want the System to Be Fair.

...Therefore, we are proposing to revise the regulations at 42 CFR 412.3(a) to remove the language stating that a physician order must be present in the medical record and be supported by the physician admission and progress notes, in order for the hospital to be paid for hospital inpatient services under Medicare Part A.”

“Under Coding is Fraud!”

- Oft-repeated but let’s think about it?
- Consider the issue in other contexts.
- What do the “experts” say?

“Undercoding is Fraud!” – the AAPC?

“In general, fraud is defined as making false statements or representation of material facts to obtain some benefit or payment for which no entitlement would otherwise exist. These acts may be committed either for the person’s own benefit or for the benefit of some other party. In other words, fraud includes the obtaining of something of value through misrepresentation or concealment of material facts.” (Attributed to a Medicare Learning Network document)

“Undercoding is Fraud” – the AAPC?

“Deliberate under coding is, in reality, “making a false statement” about the services provided, and is ultimately a “misrepresentation” of the facts. The fact sheet gives an example of fraud as “knowingly billing for services that were not furnished,” which would apply if services are purposely under coded.”
