Services

Trusts & Estates

Angela focuses her practice on estate and trust administration and probate matters.

She assists in the administration of estates and trusts, working closely with clients while handling probate matters and drafting estate planning documents.

Angela's key role in the department is monitoring the administrative processes and optimizing the legal project management and workflow. She oversees the department's tax return list, manages estate administration processes and ensures that all aspects of trust administration – including payments, tax returns, trustee/beneficiary/advisor meetings, trust account review and trust register updates – are handled in a scrupulous, efficient and timely manner. She focuses on legal process improvement and quality control, coordinating the workflow within the departmental team to ensure the highest levels of service to the clients.

With a wide-ranging knowledge of resources available both within and outside the firm, Angela functions as a hub of valuable professional information, connecting other attorneys with the solutions they seek and maintaining an effective network of communications both with clients and with the department and other areas of the firm. Resourceful, upbeat and personable, she is an effective communicator and a dedicated custodian of departmental interconnectedness.
