Ben helps corporate clients complete mergers, acquisitions, reorganizations and commercial transactions by providing practical advice.

Ben is a dedicated business attorney who assists clients with a range of mergers and acquisitions—both domestic and cross-border transactions. He skillfully negotiates key deal documents, executes closings and assists with all aspects of the transaction process. Ben also helps clients navigate corporate matters throughout a private business's life cycle, including corporate governance, commercial transactions, joint ventures, business planning and financing.

Prior to joining Fredrikson, Ben practiced corporate law in Des Moines, Iowa. He is licensed to practice in Iowa and Minnesota.
