Services

Immigration

Brooke assists clients in Fredrikson's Immigration group with employment-based immigration solutions.

As part of the Immigration group, Brooke works with employers, individuals and families to find innovative legal solutions for a variety of immigration matters.

During her time at the University of St. Thomas Law School, Brooke served as a Law Student Practitioner in the Immigration Law Practice Group. She assisted clients with green card renewal applications, naturalization applications and employment authorization. Brooke completed a fellowship with Legal Aid of Northeastern Minnesota as a Rural Summer Legal Corps Fellow.

Before joining the legal profession, Brooke worked in international higher education at the University of Minnesota. Brooke's background allows her to assist clients throughout the many stages of their immigration case.
