Trusts & Estates Litigation

Karen works collaboratively with other advisors such as financial advisors, accountants and insurance agents to provide sophisticated estate and gift planning, business succession guidance and tax advice to individuals and families. Karen also has extensive experience guiding fiduciaries in administering complex estates and trusts with significant publicity and owning intellectual property assets.

Karen is uniquely positioned in the Twin Cities with expertise in international estate planning. She helps non-U.S. people who own property in the U.S. and U.S. people who either live or own property abroad to determine how to best hold and transfer assets to their intended beneficiaries in the most tax-effective manner.

A co-chair of Fredrikson's Trust & Estates Litigation Group, Karen helps clients resolve trust and estate disputes out of court. In cases when negotiation proves ineffective, she works with the firm's trial attorneys to represent clients in court proceedings. She has in-depth experience with gift and estate tax audits.

Karen has provided estate planning guidance to nontraditional families and same-sex couples since the early years of her practice. She continues today as a trusted advisor and ally to the LGBTQ+ community.
