

Paralegals & Legal Administrative Assistants

fredlaw.com

Paralegals and LAAs are key members of our client teams. We know Paralegals and LAAs play crucial roles in providing excellent service, supporting timely and responsive communications, and ensuring our services are delivered efficiently and cost-effectively.

Expect support. Fredrikson offers training, guidance, and tools to deliver excellent client service while cultivating personal growth as you move forward in reaching your professional goals. We offer a variety of continuing education opportunities, such as computer training, classes through Fredrikson University, and more. We support attendance at various professional conferences and sponsor memberships to relevant professional organizations.

We know our Paralegals and LAAs are more than their jobs. They're family members, parents, friends, unique individuals with diverse background and insights, people experiencing milestones, triumphs, and everyday concerns outside the scope of professional lives. We honor that balance and sense of identity and work hard to promote and protect it.
