Fredrikson & Byron's annual Minnesota Legislative Session Outlook event was held on Wednesday, February 7, 2018. The work of the 2017 legislative session was drawn-out into a contentious and lengthy court battle, leaving attendees wondering if it would affect the legislature's ability and willingness to work together in the next session. How would the session play out with multiple gubernatorial candidates leading the discussions at the Capitol and the entire House up for reelection? Take a look at the recap of the session.
