

Related Services

International

Doing Business in South Africa

Event

09.18.2017

On October 24, Fredrikson & Byron's International Group was proud to host and participate in a Doing Business in South Africa seminar with various local and national dignitaries. Richard E. Weiner, Fredrikson & Byron's International Group Chair, presented on the legal aspects of doing business in South Africa and will cover how to establish companies, hire employees, appoint third parties to distribute your goods and services, and protect your intellectual property.

For more information on this program or Fredrikson's International practice, please contact Richard Weiner at rweiner@fredlaw.com.