How to Save Your Business In The Midst Of An Unfolding Crisis

Event

04.16.2020

On Tuesday, April 28, 2020, our panel of restructuring experts discussed the proven actions that owners, boards and company advisors must take to survive the unprecedented COVID-19 crisis. Panelists discussed financial resources available to companies, including the Payroll Protection Program, Economic Injury Disaster Loans and other state and local resources that may be available. The discussion included how obligations with lenders, landlords and trade suppliers are being addressed—including payment reductions in the near-term while the crisis unfolds and potential long-term solutions.
