Attorney Brian McCool Elected a Fellow of the American College of Real Estate Lawyers

Firm News

04.03.2023

Fredrikson attorney Brian S. McCool has been elected a Fellow of the American College of Real Estate Lawyers (ACREL). ACREL is a group of more than 1,000 lawyers distinguished for their skill, experience and high standards of professional and ethical conduct in the practice of real estate law. Entry to ACREL is by invitation only to exceptional real estate lawyers who have contributed to the improvement of real estate law through a combination of speaking, writing, teaching and serving on relevant boards and commissions.

McCool chairs Fredrikson's Real Estate & Construction Group. He spends his days working to find solutions to his clients' varied real estate and business issues. McCool relies heavily on his business and finance background to understand his clients' businesses so that he can best help these clients capitalize on opportunities and obtain sensible and efficient outcomes to challenges that may arise. McCool has significant experience partnering with landowners, developers, investors and builders to help them understand and navigate through the various steps that must be taken to make a development project a reality.
