

Attorney Christopher Pham Joins Mitchell Hamline Board of Trustees

Firm News

07.05.2018

Fredrikson & Byron attorney Christopher D. Pham was welcomed as a member of the board of trustees of Mitchell Hamline School of Law. Pham assumes his role as trustee July 1, 2018.

Pham represents clients in cases involving securities and financial fraud, shareholder derivative and class actions, special litigation committee investigations, merger and acquisition litigation, investor-broker firm disputes, contractual disputes, partnership and shareholder disputes, and SEC, FINRA and state regulatory proceedings. In addition, Pham co-chairs Fredrikson's Sports & Entertainment Group.

Pham is involved in several of Fredrikson's pro bono initiatives and is a volunteer attorney for YouthLink, Hennepin County Housing Court Project and Children's Law Center of Minnesota. Pham is also a former board member of Twin Cities Diversity in Practice and is actively involved with the Young Lawyers Group.
