Attorney Masha Yevzelman Elected Fellow of the American College of Tax Counsel

Firm News

03.02.2023

Fredrikson attorney Masha M. Yevzelman has been elected a Fellow of the American College of Tax Counsel, a group of approximately 700 of America's best tax attorneys. She was nominated and selected for demonstrating a high standard of excellence and ethical performance in the practice of tax. Membership is reserved for those leaders who have made an exceptional contribution to their chosen profession.

Yevzelman chairs Fredrikson's Tax Disputes & Litigation Group. She represents public and private companies, trusts, estates and high-net-worth individuals in complex tax disputes. Yevzelman also handles all stages of tax controversies—voluntary disclosures, audits, administrative appeals, tax court, district court and appellate litigation.

The American College of Tax Counsel provides a venue for lawyers to work together in promoting sound tax policy and to engage in thoughtful discussion with the government about matters affecting the tax system.
