Attorney Mark D. Salsbury has joined Fredrikson & Byron as a shareholder in the Business & Tax Planning, Private Equity and Mergers & Acquisitions Groups. Using his knowledge and experience in tax, Salsbury provides creative, smart and practical solutions to achieve client objectives in M&A transactions.

“We’re thrilled to bring Mark onto our team,” said John Erhart, chair of the firm’s Business & Tax Planning Group. “His extensive tax knowledge and range of experience will strengthen our ability to deliver the highest-quality service to a breadth of industries.”

Fredrikson & Byron is a leader in business and tax planning and has a national reputation in private equity. I’m very excited to be joining this growing firm and look forward to working with the talented lawyers at Fredrikson to deliver new strategies and solutions to help clients achieve their business objectives,” said Salsbury.

Salsbury’s practice focuses on tax planning for mergers and acquisitions, reorganizations, joint ventures, financings, entity formations, executive compensation, investment funds, and complex work outs and debt restructurings. He has extensive experience representing private equity funds and their portfolio companies, including advising on over 150 transactions involving PE funds. He also regularly represents closely-held businesses, banks, public companies and management in M&A transactions. Salsbury advises clients across a broad range of industries, including manufacturing, distribution, services, food products, consumer goods, technology, life sciences and healthcare. He represents U.S. companies doing business abroad as well as foreign companies doing business in the U.S.

Fredrikson & Byron is a 300-attorney law firm based in Minneapolis, with offices in Bismarck, Des Moines, Fargo, Mankato, St. Paul, Saltillo, Mexico, and Shanghai, China. Fredrikson & Byron has a reputation as the firm “where law and business meet.” Our attorneys bring business acumen and entrepreneurial thinking to work with clients, and operate as business advisors and strategic partners, as well as legal counselors.
