Environmental Attorney Molly Leisen Joins Fredrikson

Firm News

08.02.2023

Attorney Molly Leisen has joined Fredrikson as an associate in the Environmental Law, Energy & Natural Resources and Energy Regulation & Permitting groups.

Leisen assists clients with management of environmental due diligence, allocation of environmental liabilities and obligations, and drafting of environmental provisions in mergers and acquisitions and real property transactions.

Leisen is experienced at reviewing, researching and analyzing complex legal and regulatory requirements. She provides clients with legal advice regarding environmental regulatory and compliance matters.

Prior to joining Fredrikson, Leisen worked at the Minnesota Public Utilities Commission where she gained experience in energy regulatory matters including energy facility siting and permitting, approval of innovative renewable energy projects, and review of utilities' cost recovery requests.
