

Fredrikson & Byron Nationally Recognized as a Top Law Firm for Women

Firm News

05.30.2019

For the sixth consecutive year, Fredrikson & Byron received national recognition for its status as one of the best U.S. law firms for female attorneys, according to two recently published Law360 surveys.

Law360's 2019 Ceiling Smashers Report recognizes equity partnerships who have the highest representation of women. Fredrikson ranked seventh among law firms with 150-299 attorneys, continuing to be among the top-ranked Minnesota-headquartered firms.

Ranked number 11 nationally among firms with 150-299 attorneys, Fredrikson was named one of the 70 "Top Law Firms for Women" in Law360's 2019 Glass Ceiling Report. The report, which highlights firms "who are leading the pack in representing women at all levels," found that of the over 300 firms surveyed, women represent just 36.3 percent of attorneys, and only 21.5 percent are equity partners. At Fredrikson, women make up 39.4 percent of the total U.S.-based attorney headcount, and 30.6 percent are partners.
