Jeri Parkin Named 2022 Notable Woman in LawFirm News

02.28.2022

Fredrikson & Byron attorney Jeri L. Parkin has been named a 2022 Notable Woman in Law by Twin Cities Business. Parkin was selected for being an exemplary professional who handles complex transactions and uses her expertise to guide a variety of clients through obstacles. Honorees are also instrumental in serving as mentors, doing pro bono work that addresses social and economic causes, and advancing diversity, equity, and inclusion efforts.

Parkin represents business owners, developers, private equity groups and investors on all facets of business and corporate law transactions, mergers and acquisitions and commercial real estate transactions, including acquisitions, sales, financing, leases and development. In particular, she represents individuals in forming companies and handles transactions that involve complex real estate holdings, the acquisition or sale of businesses and commercial real property. Parkin facilitates multiple details for buyers and sellers such as due diligence, title and survey review, financing, entity formation, contract review, drafting and negotiations of contracts, lease negotiations, preparation of easements, purchase agreements (including asset and stock), release of collateral, closing proceedings and post-closing obligations.

Notable Women in Law are selected among nominated individuals identified as being instrumental in serving as mentors, doing pro bono work that addresses social and economic causes, and advancing diversity, equity and inclusion efforts. Individuals cannot pay to be included, must have at least five years of experience in their field and have shown the ability to effect change in their roles or areas of practice.
