Terrence Fleming and Todd Wind Among Minnesota Lawyer's POWER 30 in Business Litigation

Firm News

10.28.2021

Fredrikson attorneys Terrence J. Fleming and Todd A. Wind were recognized for their accomplishments, hard work, ingenuity and outstanding work ethic and were included in Minnesota Lawyer's POWER 30 in Business Litigation. Honorees were selected by Minnesota Lawyer's editorial team who conducted interviews with respected professionals around the state of Minnesota.

Fleming represents parties nationally in commercial fraud cases, including shareholder derivative and class actions, merger and acquisition litigation, SEC, FINRA and state regulatory proceedings, investor broker and law firm disputes, minority shareholder disputes and securities arbitrations. He has considerable experience representing receivers, trustees and victims of Ponzi schemes. Fleming has completed more than 100 jury and court trials, arbitrations and regulatory proceedings around the country. He was admitted as a fellow in the American College of Trial Lawyers in 2005. Fleming has also worked as an arbitrator, mediator, expert witness, and as a member of, and counsel to, special litigation committees.

Wind is an experienced trial lawyer, concentrating on complex business disputes including antitrust, trade regulation, partnership and shareholder disputes, fraud and business torts and disputes arising out of mergers and acquisition transactions. He is a certified civil trial specialist. Wind has been recognized by Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business as a leading antitrust attorney and commercial litigator. In addition to numerous jury trials and court trials, Wind has experience in domestic and international arbitration proceedings and in government investigations relating to trade regulation issues.
